

Brennan Dees

(512) 954-3209 | bdees9@tamu.edu | <https://www.linkedin.com/in/brennan-dees-810bb2210/>

Education

Texas A&M University Master of Business Administration, Finance Concentration	College Station, TX 2026
Texas A&M University Masters of Land and Property Development	College Station, TX 2026
Texas A&M University Bachelor of Science, Construction Science with a Business Minor	College Station, TX 2024

Experience

Howard Hughes Holdings Summer Associate	The Woodlands, TX June 2025 – August 2025
- Managed general contractors as the owner's representative to ensure each respective budget stayed within scope for various apartment, condominium, medical office and public use projects that totaled $550mm - Built out pro-formas to forecast and model upcoming senior living and multi-family real estate developments totaling $275mm - Produced financial and design deliverables for approved funding from board to be used on an upcoming $155mm condominium project - Sourced data by analyzing various commercial real estate and brokerage data to create Q2 2025 Economic Outlook which was shared internally as well as to shareholders in Q2 Earnings Report

Ryan Companies Project Engineer Intern	Austin, TX January 2024 – July 2024
- Managed electrical, concrete, signage, and specialties divisions with respect to their submitted guaranteed maximum price package for a $310mm 58-story high-rise - Reviewed and coordinated request for information's, change orders, and submittal packages to ensure alignment with the guaranteed maximum price package - Collaborated with Procore's Head of Product (AI Technologies) to upgrade platform for both field and office uses through automated plan reading and field verification methods

Leadership and Involvement

Texas A&M University Residence Life Graduate Hall Director	College Station, TX July 2024 – June 2026
Led 16 Resident Advisors serving 660 residents; oversaw budgeting for events/supplies, negotiated vendor pricing, and reallocated savings to priority programs while staying within plan

Texas A&M University 2040 Committee University and Community Relationship Committee, Student Member	College Station, TX March 2025 – May 2026
Leading initiative on behalf of Texas A&M University to produce a 15-year plan for the university's strategic growth both physically and through their presence around the United States

ULI Hines Student Competition Team Finance Head	College Station, TX October 2024 – January 2025
- Led a team of 4 graduate level students to compete in a nationwide Hines mixed-use competition by pacing the teams work, creating innovative idea bubbles to grow our concepts, and by ensuring there were no scope gaps - Managed all real estate and financial components for a $828mm development

Wells Fargo ULI Graduate Workshop Program Student Participant	Houston, TX September 2024 – December 2024
--	---

TEXO ASC Region 5 Design-Build Student Competition President	College Station, TX September 2023 – March 2024
- Led a team of 5 other students through rigorous preparation for a three-day regional competition that included case studies, various public speaking practices, and leveraging industry relationships to provide external insight - Assisted architects, project managers, and superintendents in aligning scopes for a $40mm hospital - Won an award for the best individual presenter at the competition as well as beating out 15 other universities for first place

Skills, Activities, and Interests

Skills: Financial Modeling (completed The Real Estate Financial Modeling Bootcamp, Justin Kivel), Market Analysis (completed The Complete Financial Analyst Course 2025, 365 Careers), AutoCAD, and Microsoft Office

Activities: Real Estate Development Association member, Aggie Real Estate Club member, Declaration Church volunteer, and Titans of Investing Finance Team (T41)

Interests: Hyrox athletic competition, ranching, and hiking